

June 15 & 16, 2017
Milanese Workshop
with Sylvie Nguyen

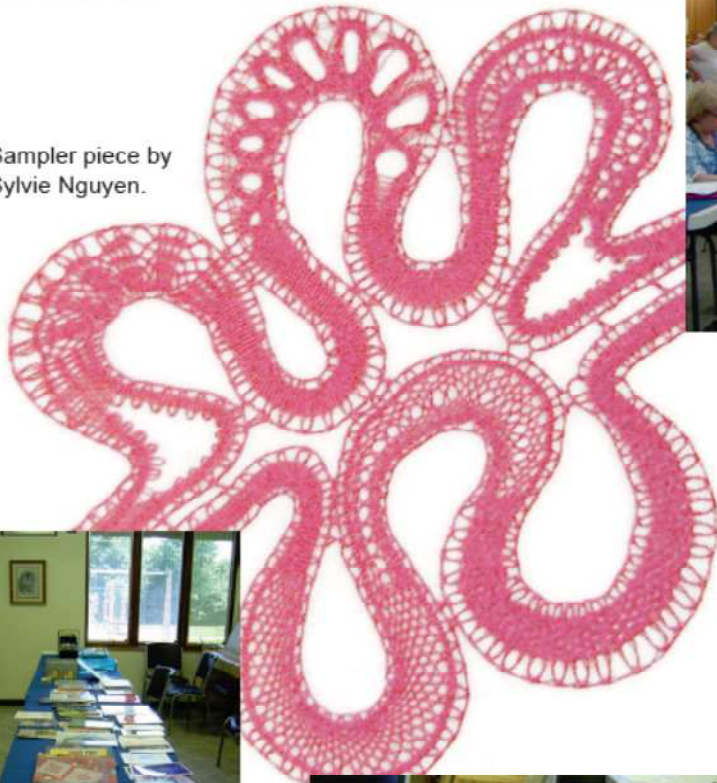

Sylvie Nguyen demonstrates.

It doesn't get much better than what we had at our workshop: an enthusiastic instructor; a large, beautiful, well-lit room; an attached fully-appointed kitchen; snacks (thank you Ruth Buck and Kanella Diakoumis); books, threads, and tools available to look at and purchase; camaraderie and learning.

Our workroom.

Sampler piece by Sylvie Nguyen.

The church kitchen.

Above and right: Books, threads, and more for sale from vendor Maria Provencher of California.

Betty Wise of Florida, a friend of Donna Tufano's.

Working hard.

Curves ahead!
Special technique, akin to short rows in knitting, needed.

Above and right: Sylvie Nguyen (standing) gives Marianne Vander Zanden (seated above) and Peggy Wessel (right) awards for making great strides in the two days.

Right: Brenda Glenn made pretty, embroidered zip bags for each person.

